

The Lincoln Learning November Update: Thankful for Learning

November 2025 | Lincoln Learning Homeschool Newsletter

Celebrating a Season of Learning, Kindness, and Growth

November brings so many reasons to celebrate. This month, we're honoring:

Academic Writing Month: Inspire your learner to write, reflect, and express ideas.

World Kindness Day: Practice gratitude and empathy in and out of the classroom.

World Children's Day: Celebrate the joy of learning and the power of every child's voice.

Thanksgiving: Reflect on the progress you and your learner have made this year.

At Lincoln Learning, we're grateful for you, the families who have chosen to make education personal, flexible, and filled with heart.

Spotlight: Tutoring for Families

Learning challenges don't follow a schedule, but with Lincoln Learning's Tutoring for Families, support is always within reach.

Here's why families love our tutoring services:

- Certified teachers provide expert, one-on-one guidance.
- Flexible scheduling fits your family's routine.
- Personalized sessions tailored to your child's goals.
- Real-time progress updates help you track success.

Whether your learner needs a little extra help or a big confidence boost, Lincoln Learning tutoring makes progress simple and stress-free.

Learn more or schedule a session today

Teaching Tip: Making the Most of WorksheetZone

Did you know your learner can complete Lincoln Learning worksheets directly online? With WorksheetZone, students can type, color, drag, drop, or draw within their lesson screen.

Families love WorksheetZone because:

-  Saves time—no printing or scanning is needed.
-  Keeps work neat and organized.
-  Access both text and coloring/handwriting worksheets.
-  Work is automatically saved.
-  Use the Copy Link to share with your teacher.

If your learner steps away mid-activity, their progress is automatically saved!

Watch the Help Center video for WorksheetZone tips:

Click here to view the video

Homeschooling with Heart

This season reminds us that learning happens in every moment of curiosity, connection, and care. From our family to yours, thank you for making Lincoln Learning part of your homeschool journey.

Explore more homeschool resources

Connect with our community:

Join our Homeschool Facebook Group to share ideas, ask questions, and celebrate milestones together.

Stay Connected

This newsletter is sent exclusively to members of the Lincoln Learning homeschool community. For updates, demos, and inspiration, visit our website or follow us on social media.

lincolnlarningsolutions.org/homeschool | Lincoln Learning Solution